

NORTHUMBRIAN CAMBRIDGE ASSOCIATION

Festive Afternoon Tea and Film

The Digital Lounge, Tyneside Cinema,
10 Pilgrim Street, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 6QG

Saturday, December 10, 2022, 3.00-6.00 pm

Over the last eight years our Festive Afternoon Tea and Film at the Tyneside has proved to be a wonderful pre-Christmas treat, and so we're offering it again to members and friends. Once more we will gather in the Tyneside Cinema's digital lounge, decorated with Christmas baubles, tree, stockings and a cheerful fire. We will be served a glass of prosecco followed by sandwiches, cakes, tea or coffee on vintage china, and popcorn and a candy cane to go with the film. There will also be a cash bar for those who would like something extra. After tea and a chance to chat, we will have a showing of a classic British comedy.

Directed and produced by John and Roy Boulting, I'm All Right Jack is based on the novel Private Life. A personnel manager is tricked by the owners of a missile factory into hiring one of their hapless nephews to work as a labourer. His conscientious industriousness upsets his work mates, who go on strike (as intended by the owners).

An award-winning comedy with a stellar cast, I'm All Right Jack is seen as the finest of the Boulting brothers' satirical films, with all walks of post-war British life on the end of insightful acerbic humour.
